

Special Education Advocacy Academy

What is this? It is a low-cost training for parents and others about Special Education advocacy.

What is an Academy? One day, hands-on course taught by lawyers that includes role playing and time for Q & A, networking with other parents.

What will I learn? Learn about special education law, Individual Education Programs (IEPs), Section 504, how to ask for assessments, accommodations and meetings, and about DRLC services.

How much does it cost? $10 but no one will be turned away if you cannot pay. Includes lunch, snacks, manual and personalized certificate, but you must RSVP and register.

Where? Los Angeles and Inland Empire:

Loyola Law School
919 Albany Street, Donovan Hall, Los Angeles, CA 90015

College of Law, University of La Verne
320 East D Street, Ontario, CA 91764

Co-Sponsored by SEARCH at University of California, Riverside
900 University Ave., 1215 Sproul Hall, Riverside, CA 902521

Space is limited to 40 participants per Academy

Academy Schedule

9:30 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

Date	RSVP by	Location
Saturday, February 2, 2013	Wednesday, January 30, 2013	College of Law, University of LaVerne
Saturday, May 4, 2013	Wednesday, May 1, 2013	Loyola Law School
Saturday, August 3, 2013	Wednesday, July 31, 2013	Loyola Law School
Saturday, November 2, 2013	Wednesday, October 30, 2013	University of California, Riverside

Lunch will be provided

Participants receive a DRLC Education Advocacy Manual and a Certificate of Completion.

Academies will be presented in English and translated in Spanish

Proporcionamos servicios en Español

To sign up (RSVP), request accommodations, or for more information, please contact us at:
(213) 736-1447 - toll free number (866) 999-3752 - Video Relay Phone (866) 912-8193 or DRLC@lls.edu

Parking in the College of Law, University of La Verne lot is free, Parking in the Loyola Law School lot ($6 for the day) or there is street parking and Parking at the University of California, Riverside ($7 for the day) or there is limited street parking for free

www.disabilityrightslegalcenter.org